The Right Honourable Beverley McLachlin, P.C.

Chief Justice McLachlin spent her formative years in Pincher Creek, Alberta and was educated at the University of Alberta, where she received a B.A. (Honours) in Philosophy in 1965. She pursued her studies at the University of Alberta and, in 1968, received both an M.A. in Philosophy and an LL.B. She was called to the Alberta Bar in 1969 and to the British Columbia Bar in 1971 and practised law in Alberta and British Columbia. Commencing in 1974, she taught for seven years in the Faculty of Law at the University of British Columbia as a tenured Associate Professor. Her judicial career began in April 1981 when she was appointed to the Vancouver County Court. In September 1981, she was appointed to the Supreme Court of British Columbia. She was elevated to the British Columbia Court of Appeal in December of 1985 and was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia in September 1988. Seven months later, in April 1989, she was sworn in as a Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. On January 7, 2000, she was appointed Chief Justice of Canada. She is the rst woman in Canada to hold this position. In addition to her judicial duties at the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice chairs the Canadian Judicial Council, the Advisory Council of the Order of Canada and the Board of Governors of the National Judicial Institute. e Chief Justice is the author of numerous articles and publications.

Suzanne Tessier

Sue Tessier, a Sudbury native, holds a Bachelor of Engineering in Mineral Processing degree from Laurentian University. She is the very first woman to graduate from the School of Engineering, and is currently a member of the Bharti School of Engineering Advisory Board. She spent her early career as a process engineer involved in process improvements, research and development, and environmental compliance at the Copper Cliff Smelter Complex. She retired in 2013 after 34 years in the mineral industry with Inco/Vale at the Copper Cliff processing plants. One of Sue Tessier's greatest passions has been encouraging young girls and women to consider science and engineering as career choices, introducing them to the possibility of engineering as a career, and mentoring new women engineers in the mining industry. Ms. Tessier has been involved with the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (CIM) since 1997. She was the Education Chair from 1997–2000 and the Vice-Chair from 2001–2002. In 2003, she became the first woman Chair of CIM and is presently the Donations Chair for the CIM's Sudbury Branch. She is currently the Chief Warden of Camp 22 – the Calling of the Engineer and performs the Iron Ring Ceremony, induction rites for Laurentian University graduates. Ms. Tessier has also been a judge at the Sudbury Regional Science Fair for 33 years and

André Picard

André Picard is the public health journalist at e Globe and Mail and is one of Canada's top public policy writers. Originally from North Bay, his work has been enormously important in some neglected policy areas, including most recently the treatment of thalidomide survivors, the death toll of asbestos, the growing need for palliative care, and the virtual absence of treatment for adolescent girls su ering from eating disorders. Mr. Picard is also well informed on the complexities of federal-provincial scal relations in health, including Health Canada's abdication of responsibility in several areas, such as the rising use of opioids. He is the author of the best-selling books CRITICAL CARE: Canadian Nurses Speak For Change and THE GIFT OF DEATH: Confronting Canada's Tainted Blood Tragedy. He is also the author of

Dr. Charles E. Pascal

Charles E. Pascal is Professor of Applied Psychology and Human Development, OISE/ University of Toronto. He is an internationally respected Canadian educator with expertise in early and higher education, public policy and leadership development. In 2007, the Premier of Ontario appointed Dr. Pascal as his Special Advisor on Early Learning. His seminal report With Our Best Future in Mind: Implementing Early Learning in Ontario has informed policy and practice across and outside of Canada. In 1982, he became the second president of Sir Sandford Fleming College. In 1987, Premier David Peterson appointed Dr. Pascal as Chair of the Ontario Council of Regents for the province's colleges of applied arts and technology. He has held several Ontario deputy minister positions including the Premier's Council on Health, Well-Being and Social Justice, the Ministry of Community and Social Services, and Education and Training. In 1996, Dr. Pascal was selected as the first full-time Executive Director of the Atkinson Charitable Foundation that promotes social and economic justice. Dr. Pascal and his teenage daughter, Tai, recently published their book, Too Far from Perfect: A Father-Daughter Conversation about Public Education. Dr. Pascal is completing his next book, Confessions of a Public Servant: Hard-earned leadership lessons, due in the Summer of 2016. Dr. Pascal holds a PhD in Psychology (Michigan) and has received recognition from many organizations to date, including two honorary doctorates and three honorary diplomas. Dr. Pascal is a member of the Order of Canada.

- Serve as a member of the Board of Governors;
- Participate in, or preside over, ceremonial or other important events on campus;
- Represent the University in an o cial capacity at external functions from time to time;
- Perform a strong leadership role on behalf of the University;
- Engage in pro le-raising activities;
- Assist in advancement activities (friend-raising and fund-raising);
- Advocate directly, or through a network of connections, for the post-secondary system, and for Laurentian University in particular;
- Provide advice to the President and Vice-Chancellor.

Le chancelier de l'Université Laurentienne

M. Steve Paikin est chef d'antenne de l'émission d'actualité e Agenda with Steve Paikin à TVO. Depuis plus de 20 ans, il réalise et anime des émissions d'actualités pour le télédi useur éducatif de l'Ontario et est bien connu pour avoir présidé six débats de candidats aux élections fédérales et provinciales.

M. Paikin a commencé à travailler à TVO en 1992 et ne cesse d'établir de nouvelles normes d'excellence en journalisme télévisé. En qualité d'animateur de e Agenda, M. Paikin joue un rôle clé pour faire participer les gens de l'Ontario aux questions qui façonnent la province. Intervieweur et animateur de débat des plus adroits et respectés des médias canadiens, il a rehaussé le niveau de discours touchant des sujets comme la politique, la religion et la culture, les sciences et la technologie et l'économie et l'environnement, tant aux termes de l'objectivité que de l'accessibilité. M. Paikin est l'auteur
