

Laurentian University is located on the traditional lands of the Atikameksheng Anishnawbek, in proximity to the Wahnapiitae First Nation, within the territory of the Robinson Huron Treaty of 1850 in Sudbury, Ontario. Laurentian serves over 7500 students and is one of two bilingual universities in the province of Ontario. Committed to its bilingual and multicultural mandate, Laurentian University offers an experience in English and French with a comprehensive approach to Indigenous education. Laurentian's beautiful, forested campus is surrounded by freshwater lakes, conservation lands and hundreds of kilometers of cross-country and hiking trails while situated in the geographic centre of Greater Sudbury, northern Ontario's major urban centre (population 170,000). Laurentian University has close and productive ties to Science North, the Sudbury Neutrino Observatory Lab (SNOLAB), Health Sciences North, and multiple post-secondary institutions.

Laurentian is committed to cultivating a diverse, inclusive and vibrant academic work environment focusing on

- Excellent communication skills and the capacity to operate in both French and English.
- A Ph.D. in a relevant discipline with a record of research and scholarship.
